

All nine flares are on 24 hours without supplemental fuel. Rain suspended work today around noon, so the remaining 4 loads of posi-shell could not be applied (just less than a acre).

On Monday, we hope to spray the remaining posi-shell and continue the work to optimize the operation of the flares. We will also be repairing the storm water drainage features.